coffee

We are proud to work with All Things Bloom, our incredible coffee supplier. Yes, their coffee tastes amazing, but they're all about supporting the wider community. They've committed to a life-long partnership with Brazil's Café Delas: a programme dedicated to empowering women farmers in Brazil to become leaders and get the credit they deserve for the beautiful work they do. Not only that but, in the UK they're working with social initiative Home Kitchen to set up barista training programmes for people affected by homelessness.
